

Encourage All Students to Become Lifelong Independent Readers

Grade Range: PreK-3

Providing access to books at home has the power to captivate even the most disengaged learners, close gaps that seem impossible to bridge, and keep all students on track for a successful future...

Send your students home with My Books Every Day—a collection of high-quality, cost-efficient books and activity sets designed to reinforce key learning skills, increase year-round independent reading, build home libraries, and encourage all students to become lifelong learners.

THEMES INCLUDE:

Open a World of Possible

builds the love of shared reading through imagination and exploration.

Let's Discover!
